

IIS, Once again

To commemorate 25 successful years of academic excellence, India International School, Kshipra Path has launched its new branch IIS, Sitapura, a co-educational school to cater to the popular demand of its stakeholders. The Director, Dr. Ashok Gupta welcomed the students on the first day amidst a lot of excitement. He motivated them and the staff with his age old caption of “Explore, Dream & Discover”. Once again IIS has added a new feather to its cap, this new venture will definitely rise to new realms in the field of academics with competent mentors, excellent infrastructure, good guidance and above all the blessings of the almighty.
