

Picnic to Kanak Vrindawan

The students of classes KG-8 of India International School, Sitapura went for a day out in Kanak Ghati, an amazing garden built on ghats of Aravali hills. The students enjoyed the bus ride to the Kanak Ghati through the city of Jaipur. The aim of this fun filled and enjoyable trip was – “ a healthy recreational Field trip and a close interaction with the nature and its beauty”.