

English Poetry Recitation Competition

IIS, Sitapura organized a 'poetry competition ' which gave a chance to explore the talent of students beyond the books. Four students from each house (Carnations, Daffodils, Orchids and Tulips) were selected for the competition. All the house teachers and students put in their efforts to recite the poem in the coherent form. All the house participants gave their best performance. The students were judged on the basis of clarity, presentation, fluency pronunciation and rhythm. The first position in junior category was taken by Carnations and Orchids and 1st position in senior category was taken by Tulips and Carnations. This competition really proved beneficial for the students to pursue a rich and enjoyable language learning experience. Principal Ms. Dipali Shrivastava congratulated the winning house and applauded all the participants for their superb performance.
