

11th July'16

World Population day

“We should control the Population to ensure the survival of the environment” was the message given by with a brief description about what and how the World Population day is observed by Divyansh Jain of Class 7. The observance of the same day on 11th July'16 laid emphasis on the action being done at right time i.e. creating awareness.