

WORLD AGED DAY

October 1 is celebrated as World Aged Day. Students of India International School, Mansarovar mark this day every year by showing their love , care and affection for their grandparents. Additionally some senior students visit old age homes and spend time there.

This year was a little different. They celebrated the same with a lot of love and care displayed through their beautiful creations in the form of cards and poems written specifically for their grand parents.