The 14th Inter-School Abhishek Dangi Memorial Debate in the A.P.J Abdul Kalam Auditorium witnessed budding orators from different prestigious institutions, each trying to argue their perspectives. This was a two-day event that initiated on 30th July and concluded on 31st July 2025, the first being the qualifying round wherein the 11 participating teams spoke impromptu on the given topic. Six teams qualified for the debate to be held on the second day. The topic for the debate was sensational and apt for the present global scenario, keeping the participants abreast with the nuances of diplomacy: "Soft Power is More Effective than Hard Power in International Affairs." Abhishek Dangi's parents were the Guests of Honour for the event. Distinguished judges graced both days of the event, maintaining the prestige and decorum of this legacy debate at IIS. The Principal applauded the participants' efforts and motivated the students. Aarav Jain of Delhi Public School, Jodhpur was adjudged the Best Speaker for the Motion, whereas Tavishi Verma of IIS Mansarovar, Jaipur was adjudged the Best Speaker Against the Motion. The Rolling Trophy was a tie between IIS Mansarovar and DPS Jodhpur, but, IIS, being the host school gave the trophy to DPS Jodhpur.
