

SPIC MACAY- A Cultural Session at IIS, Mansarovar

To promote cultural awareness among students, the Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth (SPIC MACAY), Jaipur Chapter, in association with India International School, Mansarovar organized a live demonstration on Saturday, 7th August, 2021 on Zoon platform. The objective was to give students a holistic exposure of our rich cultural heritage, and provide them with an inspiring experience. The renowned Indian Classical Music Vocalist. Padma Bhushan. Vidushi Sunanda Sharma performed for the students of classes

VII-XII. The show commenced with the introduction of the artist who later took the students through the journey of understanding the nuances of the Indian Classical music by giving valuable insights. She spoke about how the language of music transcends all boundaries. Her performance left the audience spellbound. The interaction with the students made the session informative and developed a love for classical music. It was an unforgettable life experience for the students who were not only exposed to the rich cultural heritage of India but also to the noble cause and efforts of Spic Macay. It was an effort to connect the youth with the living legend of classical music and once again defeat the pandemic which cannot deter IISians from achieving the heights. The session ended with a vote of thanks proposed by the school Principal, Ms. Mala Agnihotri who extended her heartfelt thanks to Ms. Sunanda for creating this beautiful aura for the students and for enlightening them with the Indian Classical forms like Khyal, Chetti, tappa, Rag Malhar, etc. IIS hopes to organise many more such events in future.
