

7th Chapter of IISMUN '22

25th May 2022, when the IIS campus turned into a Global Hub with delegates pouring in from different countries, all collected to resolve significant issues pertaining to global peace. The 7th successful Chapter of MUN saw delegates adorn the diplomat's hat debating, using their persuasive skills to get their point across. The seven committees, each with a unique sensational agenda kept delegates engaged throughout as the day ended with the blink of an eye.

The delegates were highly enthusiastic and the excitement on their faces narrated it all. ECOFIN started an interactive session by discussing ways in which COVID-19 affected economies of the World, UNSC had a detailed discussion on the topic 'Humanitarian aid and corridor'. The AIPPM, of course was the most happening, where UNGA discussed the terror issues, WHO conflicted regarding action implemented by the Government to recover from the Pandemic and the vaccination. FAO discussed in a simple yet crucial way to improve sustainability and agriculture practices. UNEP continued the argument by attempting to find solutions for better waste management.

All in all, it was an exhausting day with ample of research to be done at home to get back tomorrow for an enriching session.