

EARLY SPRING BLOSSOMS AT IIS DURING THE 36TH AWARD CEREMONY

The commemoration of the 36th Award Ceremony on 24 January 2026, witnessed jubilations with pride in the cultural heritage alongside celebrating excellence of merit in academics, sports and miscellaneous fields. The guest of honour were the parents of the awardees. The honour of giving away the different categories of awards was done by the Chairperson IIS, Mr. Amit Gupta, Vice President - Indian Council for International Amity, Shri Rajeev Sogani ji, our eminent alumnus Kachnar Choudhary a renowned international athlete who has brought home innumerable laurels, making her Alma Mater proud. The elated faces of the parents and students was a treat to the soul. The cultural program further electrified the stage adding a spark and belongingness to the face of every IISian. A total number of 335 awards, besides House Trophies were given. The Chairperson, Amit Gupta Sir congratulated the students and parents. He thanked the parents for their cooperation and support. This was followed by high tea for parents. It seemed that Spring had knocked at the gates of IIS bringing with it all the vibrance and agility. The campus resonated with giggles and laughter even after the event was concluded.
