IIS Jr. MUN'26

"Clash of Perspectives, Consensus of Nations"

PATRON THAT LIVES ON...

My footsteps may belong only to the past of these halls, but my spirit lingers in every lesson taught, every dream nurtured and every mind ignited with curiosity. The vision will live on—in the voices that rise in debate, in the hands that draft resolutions, in the minds that dare to challenge the world's greatest dilemmas. This institution, this

MUN, is not just about academics or arguments, it is about building diplomats, visionaries and change makers. It is about giving young minds the courage to speak, the wisdom to listen and the strength to lead. As you take your place in this conference, remember—true leadership is not about power, but purpose. Carry this legacy forward, not just in committee rooms, but in life itself. The world is waiting for you.

DEAR LEADERS OF EMERGING INDIA

Welcome to IIS Jr. MUN'26—a space to engage, evolve, and discover your potential.

IIS Jr. MUN'26 at India International School brings together students ready to explore ideas, engage in meaningful dialogue and resolve global issues with a fresh perspective. It is a platform designed not just for discussion, but for growth—where opinions are heard, tested and catered to with due reverence.

Leadership, in its truest sense, is not about recognition or control. It is about awareness, responsibility and the ability to bring people together despite their differences. It requires patience to understand, courage to speak and wisdom to act in the interest of all.

Within the committees, you will encounter differing opinions, complex issues and moments that demand clarity and composure. These experiences are what shape your ability to think critically and respond thoughtfully—qualities that define impactful individuals. Approach each session with openness and determination. Allow yourself to learn, to question and to contribute meaningfully.

Back for a Second Edition — Bigger, Better & Bolder

“Clash of Perspectives, Consensus of Nations”

After an incredible first edition, IIS Jr. MUN is back — sharper, stronger, and ready to raise the bar.

This time, it's not just about debating, it's about owning the room, challenging perspectives, and actually understanding what it takes to build consensus in a world full of differences.

Our motto says it all — different opinions will clash, but the real skill lies in turning that clash into meaningful dialogue and real solutions. That's what makes a true delegate.
