Building International Mindedness- World Food Day

World Food Day infuses international mindedness

India International School, Mansarovar celebrated 'World Food Day'. The international wing of the school celebrated the day to make students internationally minded about the diversity in food habits at the national and global level. Students enjoyed an array of activities organised for them. Students were also sensitised about the good food habits and harms of junk food.